

ESTÍ Hydroelectric Complex

Customer: AES Panamá

Location: Panama

Areas Involved: Project Management Team (PMT) and SHA.

Scope: Responsible for the coordination and inspection of the works in the fields of: Hygiene, Environment, Labor Security and Premises Security.

Description:

Estí Hydroelectric Complex is located in the Province of Chiquirí, approximately 25km northeast David and 400 west of Panama City.

Installed Capacity: 120 MW

Average Generation: 620 Gwh/year

Estí features two units with an installed capacity of 120 MW and one MW. This Hydroelectric plant uses the downstream of Chiquirí, La Fortuna and Barrigón, and has a storage volume for up to 11 hours of maximum generation output.

