

Estrella de Mar I

Client: AES Panamá

Location: Panamá

Scope: Project Management delegation under the "Project Management Team" (PMT) mode

Areas Involved: Civil, Maritime Works, Electro mechanics)and Planning and Control, as well as Safety Health and Environment.

Description

Project intended to install 72MW power generation with connection to the National Interconnected System (SIN), through the Installation and Interconnection of a barge-type thermal electric generation plant. The project scope of works includes the construction of an electric elevating Sub Station to 115 Kv, construction of 1.2 km of a new electric transmission line in 115 KV and the Overhaul (wire change) of two six-kilometer-long 115 Kv electric circuits.

